Questions for Study & Reflection

1. Look up each of the texts Pastor Charlie referred to this morning and pray that God would apply one or more of them to your life right now. The whole Word of God is for you, but it may be that one or two texts are especially for you right now: Rom 16:20; 1 John 4:18; Luke 11:13; 2 Tim 2:15; Hebrews 6:1-2; 1 Peter 3:14-16; 2 Cor 10:3-6.
2. Are you prepared for the gospel of peace?
 - a. Communion: Are you learning to love the Lord your God through daily communion with him? Do you have a plan for this, and if not why not? Are you reading and memorizing and studying his Word? Are you praying and letting all your requests be made known to God? Are you growing in him little by little each day?
 - b. Understanding: Do you understand the basics of the gospel? Are you moving beyond the elementary things and pressing on toward maturity? Are you seeing new depths of what God has done in Christ and does your heart rejoice as you've grown in understanding? Do you have a plan for growing all the more, and if not why not?
 - c. Articulation: Are you growing in your ability to articulate the gospel to others? Are you using some of the many resources that are available to you? Are you utilizing the body of Christ to help you think through issues so that you can make a defense for the hope that lies within you and so that you can take every thought captive to obey Christ? Do you have a plan for growing all the more, and if not why not?
 - d. Attitude: Are you breeding eagerness for being used of God in your soul? Are you excited by the prospect that God may call on you at anytime to spread a passion for the God of peace and the gospel of peace?
